1. [redacted] the Belgrade Government had, until end 1950, been facilitating the escape from Albania of opponents of the present regime, described [redacted] as "followers of Koci Xoxe."
2. This group, however, no longer enjoys the trust of the Yugoslav authorities, and its members have been excluded from all political activity.

The term "followers of Koci Xoxe" was presumably loosely used here, and probably merely refers to those Albanians (former resistance leaders and others) who have been seeking refuge in Yugoslavia.
